Note to examiner(s):

Sir:

I am submitting this patent application pro se. Having spent years out of work, as a doctoral student, I cannot afford the assistance of a patent attorney. Any suggestions, objections, or need for further clarification you feel will improve this patent application will be greatly appreciated. This is especially true regarding its claims.

I have not been able to find a downloadable form for a petition to include color drawings. An individual at your website tech support could not find said form either. The Nolo books I have read are somewhat dated, showing different forms and form numbers than are currently downloadable. However, they state that as of their publication, a fee of $130.00 was required for such a petition. The color drawings are necessary within my application because color-coding is an important element of my invention.

I am inclosing check #103 for $375.00 as a basic filing fee, and check # 104 for $130.00 for a petition to include color drawings.

Please inform me if additional funds are needed, or if said petition and fee are no longer applicable.

Sincerely,

Kenneth C. Barker
